Every interior architecture consists of several structural elements such as walls, ceilings, flooring, and furniture, which compose the interior space.

Flooring is a key focal point and organizer of all the interior items.

Carpets give the personality to the flooring and pulls together the other interior elements.

“A carpet is the soul of the apartment.” This is what Edgar Allan Poe said many years ago.

Modern interior spaces are being designed around simplicity and minimalism. “Less is more” is the key phrase to understand what is happening.

Classic Persian rugs with their varied meaningful symbols, complicated motifs and vibrant colors are sometimes not compatible with contemporary, modern living spaces.

Modern Persian rugs are a perfect complement to the minimalist decor.

Being loyal to the classic patterns, while adapting to modern/contemporary decor, these carpets are designed to be rich in symbolism with a simplicity that unifies modern interior designs and living spaces.

Above advantages beside organic materials are special characteristics of Boustani's modern Persian rugs.
